70 Students Leave School to Enter the Working World

Nicole Feldpausch poses for a picture at her desk in the activities office.

Co-op is a class that consists of 70 students that meet during first and second periods in Mrs. Kietzman's room. They learn about how to write resumes, prepare for interviews, fill out applications, and manage their bank accounts. The students are able to leave at 11:15 and must work a minimum of 15 hours per week.

Katie Hill smiles as she works hard at True Value.

"I think Co-op is a good reason to get out of school early."
Craig Rehn

Andy Lane takes a break from bagging groceries at North Scott Foods.

Tony Vicary smiles big as the fumes get to him from pumping gas into the Dittmer Shell truck.

"I think Co-op is a good idea because I can get out of school by 11:15 and go straight to work and I especially like getting out early on Fridays."

Luke Waters

Rachael Regan hopes she doesn't miscount the money at First Central Bank.

Students Work Hard to Achieve Their Goals

Why did you make the decision to join F.F.A?

I wanted to meet new people, have new experiences, but I mostly wanted to have lots of fun.

COOL, Iowa

COOL, Iowa is a program that works with local and state law enforcement to spread seat belt awareness. Amanda Jeddelloh and Karah Underwood worked with the Eldridge and other local police departments.

Steve Buesing, Lindsay Shaw, Donavin VanEe, Karah Underwood work hard raking for a community service project.

"It is nice to help people who need help and helping people makes you feel good because you know you are doing something nice."

Steve Buesing '02

"SADD is a great organization to be a part of. It teaches you about destructive decisions and how they can wreck your life, and it also teaches health alternatives."

Donavin VanEe '05

Chris McCabe

"The show is great, and I love the commercials. It is hilarious!"
Nick Thomas

The action packed North Scott News crew includes anchors Mike Farley and Kurt Liske, gopher Eric Pehler, key grip Ryan Schmidt, director/editor Jeremy Metz, and their fearless leader is no other than Ryan Christensen.

The NSN crew works hard for hours every day to produce a fun and educational news program for the viewing pleasure of the student body of North Scott High School every Monday.

The show focuses on sports and other activities in the school, along with just plain old funny remarks on local happenings, plus shout-outs to and from the students of North Scott. They also create comical commercials imitating the real deal.

The future of North Scott News is unknown, but we do know that if future students try to carry on the NSN spirit, it will never come close to the high quality programming of the original.

Jeremy Metz is embarrassed after falling out of the trash can. He forgot his lunch card.

Vice President Evan Grimme

"Five years of chess club and they still call me 'Mr. Bye'!"

Adviser Dean Birkhofer

Not having DST this year really hurt the chess clubs membership. Last year chess club was almost up to 20 members. Now they don't even count. "Whoever shows up Wednesday after school," said Mr. Birkhofer. "We just come in and sit down and play us some chess."

If more students were involved it would be better. No one even knows who is going to be president next year. Evan is afraid of the curse and Jeremiah is graduating. The curse on the president is whoever is president gets into a car accident. It started minor and each year the accident is more major. Good luck to the next president.

Tim Scheetz and Jeff Wolf, the only loyal members of chess club, enjoy a quick game after school on Wednesday.

Musicians Earn All State Recognition

Photos by Jeanna Sheedy

Five students were named to the All State Choirs this year. This is the highest individual honor an Iowa student can achieve while in high school choir. This years All Staters are Nick Mixdorf, senior; Nate Meyer, freshman; Daniel Kelchen, junior; Lisa Hildebrand, senior; and Ali Hildebrand, sophomore. Chris Olson, a junior, was accepted as a alternate for All-State.

Freshmen Stephanie Wiebel was accepted in to the ninth grade Honers Opus Choir. She rehearsed all first quarter to prepare for this event. It is a great reward for hard work.

Kristena Easter, a sophomore, was chosen to be in the the All State band. A total of 277 students were selected from the 320 high schools that were represented at auditions on October 20, 2001.

"All State was so much fun man - good times."
Nate Meyer

"I was proud to be chosen as first alternate for All State this year; too bad no one dropped."
Chris Olson

"It was breathtaking to be a part of All State."
Ali Hildebrand

CLASS OF 2002

Always Keep Your Dreams Alive

Now is the time for you to celebrate the accomplishment
Of a dream you have worked so hard to realize!

You have shown so many people just how Special you are !

Now is the time to begin to pursue the next path,
To reach out for the next star,
And achieve the things that are so important to you!

Always keep your dreams alive..
And keep them coming true!
- Collin McCarthy

Thinking

If you think you are beaten, you are.

If you think you dare not, you don't.

If you'd like to win but you think you can't,

It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost.

For out of the world we find

Success begins with a person's will —

It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;

You've got to think high to rise;

You've got to be sure of yourself before

You can ever win a prize.

Life's battle doesn't always go

To the stronger, faster woman or man.

But sooner or later the person who wins

Is the one who thinks they can.

Special Congratulations to North Scott Graduating Senior

Mitchell Amhof

Kaycee-Jo Petersen

You will always be our beautiful little angel
sent from God above,
On loan to us for sixteen years
to cherish and to love.

And although your years on this good Earth
were sadly all too few,
We remember the many precious memories
of times we spent with you.

So, until we meet again someday
in God's great heaven above,
Please know that you are in our hearts and very much loved.
